

Swampscott Senior Center
200 R ESSEX STREET
SWAMPSCOTT, MASSACHUSETTS 01907
(781) 596-8866

approved
6-10-2016

SWAMPSCOTT SENIOR CENTER

COUNCIL ON AGING

April 12, 2016

Present: Marilyn Cassidy, Chairperson; Marilyn Hurwitz, Senior Center Director; Susan Pierce, Asst. Senior Center Director; Judee Cyr; Felice Litman; Ruth Larrobino; Kathy Keiser; Norma Freedman; Alice Griffen; Bill Hyde; Marv Cobbett.

The meeting was called to order at 8:30 am April 12 2016. The minutes were read and accepted.

Marilyn Hurwitz updated the Board on Sidney Novak's recuperation. The Board would like to host a luncheon for Sidney and his wife, Ruth. Marilyn will contact them to verify where they would like to go. Also the Board plans to make a donation in Sidney's honor to the Friends.

Since there will be a vacancy on the Board, Selectman, Matt Strauss suggested that Peter McNerney would be a good choice.

OLD BUSINESS

The mens' recruitment breakfast had been cancelled because of the lack of interest. GLSS will sponsor the June 12 anniversary dinner instead. Marilyn Hurwitz will request a liquor license for that day.

The April 11 Red Sox Day at the Center was a success.

NEW BUSINESS

There is a proposed 1% increase in staff salaries.

The Friends will host a Pot Luck Supper on Tues., May 24. A musical quartet will entertain.

A Volunteer luncheon is planned for noon, May 26. All class leaders and Board members are invited.

Three nurses will be available for blood pressures on Health Day. Seniors are urged to bring their meds so that they can be analyzed.

The penpal meeting with Mrs. Lawler's 4th grade Stanley School class and the penpals from the Senior Center has not been finalized.

Updates on the proposals for the Machon School and the former Senior Center building were discussed. Also discussed was the new assisted living building in Vinnin Square. The next meeting will be May 10.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 9:15 am.

Respectfully submitted,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Felice Litman".

Felice Litman

Secretary