Public Comment

If you have something to say to the School Committee, in addition to emailing and calling us, we invite you to speak during our meeting. We allot 15 minutes for public comment and allow each speaker 3 minutes, there is a time clock so you can monitor the length of your remarks. Please understand we are listening but will not immediately respond. We will never respond to personnel matters pertaining to any staff other than the Superintendent, the only SPS employee we oversee.

Comments in person: Please sign your name and address on the Public Comment list at the front of the Principal's Conference Room, you will be called on in the order you sign up
