A CONVERSATION ABOUT RACE, DISCRIMINATION, INEQUALITY AND INJUSTICE IN SWAMPSCOTT

MEETING DATE: June 24, 2020 @ 6:00pm

MEETING LOCATION: Virtual Meeting (see details below)

On Wednesday night at 6:00 p.m., the Town of Swampscott will host a facilitated discussion about race, discrimination, inequality and injustice in the Town of Swampscott. This discussion will be facilitated by Susan Maze-Rothstein, co-director of the Center for Restorative Justice at Suffolk University.

Recent events in Swampscott and nationally highlight the critical need for all of us to acknowledge and better understand the existence of discrimination, injustice and inequality within Swampscott. Doing so is an important step toward taking the necessary steps to eradicate any formal and cultural systems that keep any resident or guest in Swampscott from feeling safe, welcomed and loved.

Participants will include members of the Swampscott community, the Swampscott Town Administrator and the Swampscott Select Board. There will be opportunities for questions from the general public. You may join this discussion the following ways:
