

How to Research the History of Your Home

Presented by Ryan Judkins, PhD & the Swampscott Historical Commission

Date: Friday, January 15, 2021

Time: 6:00 PM

If your house could speak, what tales would it tell? Of heroes and villains, taciturn sea captains, or shocking drama? Or of joyous family events, and personal moments of previous occupants. Join Ryan Judkins as he shares research tips to help you find out the history of your home: finding deeds back to original construction, accessing historic maps to see your house and neighborhood changes over time, how to submit your home for a Preservation Award, and more.
